

40th Annual Pacific Rim International Conference on Disability and Diversity

Call for Exhibitors

Aloha,

We are excited to announce the Call for Exhibitors for the 40th annual Pacific Rim International Conference on Disability and Diversity (Pac Rim), hosted by the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa's Center on Disability Studies (CDS). The Pac Rim Conference is the premier global event dedicated to improving the lives of people with disabilities. It will take place in Honolulu, Hawai'i at the Hawai'i Convention Center on Tuesday, April 15, 2025 and Wednesday, April 16, 2025 with an expected audience of 600–750 participants.

This event unites a diverse community of professionals, advocates, researchers, and individuals with disabilities to foster dialogue, share knowledge, and promote inclusivity. We invite you to join us as an exhibitor to showcase your products, services, and initiatives that contribute to empowering individuals with disabilities and promoting diversity.

The Pac Rim 2025 theme, By Us and For Us: Legacy and Future of our Movement, invites attendees to honor the past and contemplate the future of our global movement. It invites us to celebrate our achievements, share our struggles, and develop strategies for the work that lies ahead.

For more information about the conference and CDS, please visit our website at pacrim.coe.hawaii.edu.
